

---

Vladimir Vitalievich Morozov

Title:

- ✓ Professor of Linguistics

Current jobs:

- ✓ International University for Nature, Society and Man:
Courses on Theory of Cross-cultural Communication, Linguistic Semantics
- ✓ JINR University Centre:
Russian language course

This learner-friendly course is intended for:

- beginners,
- intermediate,
- advanced learners of Russian,

and is specially tailored for speakers of different languages.

Features of the course:

- ✓ Focus on conversational skills: developing the learners' active and passive vocabularies (the latter includes the words you recognize and the former the words you can easily recall at any moment)
- ✓ Understanding spoken Russian
- ✓ Correct usage of the most frequent and useful phrases
- ✓ Conversational topics include:
  - “Finding Your Way and Asking for Directions”,
  - “Shopping and Time-out”,
  - “Using Public Transport”,
  - “Traveling to and in Moscow”,
  - “Talking about Yourself” and others.
- ✓ Special attention is paid to different meanings of formally similar words in Russian and other languages.

The learners are encouraged to suggest other topics.